Asian Hope

Founded in 1999, Asian Hope is an international, Christian nonprofit organization dedicated to improving the lives of vulnerable children in Cambodia. Asian Hope's passion is to dramatically alter the future of impoverished children in Cambodia through life-changing programs of Christian education and community development. Asian Hope believes that effective and lasting community transformation comes through equipping future generations to be the catalysts of hope and change. Asian Hope currently protects, educates and empowers more than 1,100 children in Cambodia.
